

TLC's Youth Group: Profile

TLC'S Youth Group, self-named "Wake Walkers" meets each Sunday morning during the service (except for potluck Sundays) as well as the second and fourth Saturdays of each month.

Sunday morning meetings occur during the sermon time upstairs and involve Bible study and discussion. Saturday meetings are a mix of social events, community building, Bible study and discussions. These are sometimes held at TLC but also involve trips to other locations.

Wake Walkers consists of about 15 youth at any given gathering, with the anticipation of many more coming in the next few years, as they graduate out of TLC's Kids Community. Currently both middle school and high school youth are welcome members of Wake Walkers.

Wake Walkers has an intentional feel; the youth have taken on ownership of the group and have a big say in what it looks like. At present, there are a good group of adult volunteers who lead, in addition to some Columbia Bible College students.

The Life Centre is looking for someone who can continue to encourage the group toward greater commitment to Jesus and his Kingdom mission in the world!
